

Privacy Policy for Allout

Effective Date: 2/23/2026

1. Overview

This Privacy Policy describes how Fieldstream LLC ("Fieldstream," "we," "us," or "our") collects, uses, discloses, and protects information when you use the Allout mobile application and related services (the "Service"). Allout is a social platform for the outdoor community that includes profiles, posts, reels, comments, direct messaging, marketplace listings, trophy content, and related features.

By using the Service, you agree to the collection and use of information described in this Privacy Policy.

2. Information We Collect

A. Account and profile information

- Name, username, display name, email address, password/authentication information, profile photo, bio, and profile details you choose to provide
- Account identifiers, user IDs, and authentication records used to operate your account

B. User Content

- Photos, videos, audio contained in videos, captions, comments, posts, reels, trophy entries, marketplace listings, listing descriptions, pricing, saved content, likes, follows, and other content you submit or display through the Service
- Direct messages and communications you send to other users through the Service

C. Marketplace-related information

- Listing details you provide, including item descriptions, photos/videos, price, condition, category, general location, and communications with other users
- We do not process payments, escrow funds, arrange shipping, or store payment card information for user-to-user marketplace activity

D. Location information

- General location information you provide, such as city, state, or listing location
- Approximate location information, including location derived from IP address or device settings
- Precise location is only collected if you grant permission through your device settings for features that require it

E. Device, diagnostics, and usage information

- Device type, operating system, app version, device settings, log data, crash reports, performance data, and diagnostic information
- Usage data such as app launches, taps, clicks, scrolling, searches, views, likes, saves, follows, messages, marketplace interactions, and other product interaction data

F. AI assistant information

- Prompts, questions, messages, generated responses, and related interaction data submitted to or generated by the Allout AI assistant
- This information may be used to provide, maintain, improve, and moderate the AI assistant experience

G. Support and safety communications

- Information you provide when contacting support, reporting users, reporting content, appealing moderation decisions, or sending feedback

3. How We Use Information

We use information to:

- Provide, operate, maintain, and improve the Service
- Create and manage user accounts
- Authenticate users and secure accounts
- Enable profiles, feeds, posts, reels, comments, messaging, marketplace listings, trophy features, search, and related community features
- Personalize feeds, recommendations, search results, and user experience
- Process uploads, display User Content, and store media
- Support marketplace communication between users
- Provide and improve AI assistant features
- Monitor, troubleshoot, debug, and improve app performance and reliability
- Detect, investigate, and prevent fraud, spam, abuse, security incidents, illegal activity, and violations of our Terms
- Enforce policies, moderate content, and protect users and the Service
- Communicate with you about account activity, support, updates, safety notices, and administrative messages
- Comply with legal obligations and respond to lawful requests

4. How We Share Information

We may share information:

- With service providers who help us operate the Service, including hosting, database, storage, authentication, analytics, crash reporting, AI processing, moderation, customer support, and infrastructure providers
- With other users when you post content publicly, create a public profile, comment, message, list marketplace items, or otherwise choose to share information through the Service
- To comply with laws, regulations, subpoenas, court orders, legal processes, or governmental requests
- To protect the rights, property, safety, and security of Fieldstream, users, and the public
- To investigate fraud, abuse, security issues, prohibited conduct, or violations of our Terms
- In connection with a business transaction, such as a merger, acquisition, financing, reorganization, bankruptcy, sale of assets, or transfer of business operations

We do not sell your personal information. We do not use your personal information to track you across other companies' apps or websites for third-party advertising purposes.

5. User Content Visibility

User Content that you post publicly may be visible to other users and may be associated with your username, profile photo, and account information. This includes posts, reels, comments, marketplace listings, trophy entries, and other public activity.

Direct messages are intended to be private between conversation participants, but they may be reviewed or disclosed if necessary for safety, moderation, legal compliance, fraud prevention, or enforcement of our Terms.

6. Third-Party Services

The Service may rely on third-party providers for hosting, authentication, storage, analytics, crash reporting, AI processing, and other operational services. These providers may process information on our behalf according to their own policies and contractual obligations.

The Service may contain links to third-party websites or services. We are not responsible for the privacy practices, content, or policies of third-party services.

7. Data Retention

We retain information for as long as necessary to provide the Service, maintain your account, comply with legal obligations, resolve disputes, enforce agreements, prevent fraud or abuse, and support legitimate business purposes.

Some information may remain after deletion if retention is required or permitted by law, for safety and security reasons, for backup purposes, or where the information has been shared with other users and cannot reasonably be removed.

8. Account Deletion and Your Choices

You may update certain account and profile information within the app. You may request account deletion or data deletion by contacting Support@alloutdoors.co.

You can control certain permissions, such as camera, microphone, photos, and location access, through your iOS device settings. Disabling permissions may limit some features.

You may also choose not to provide certain information, but some features may not function without it.

9. Security

We use reasonable administrative, technical, and physical safeguards designed to protect information. However, no method of transmission, storage, or electronic processing is completely secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute security.

10. Children's Privacy

The Service is not directed to anyone under eighteen (18) years old. You must be at least 18 to use the Service. If we learn that we collected personal information from someone under 18, we may delete the information and terminate the account.

11. Marketplace Privacy and Safety

Marketplace listings may display information you choose to provide, including listing photos, descriptions, price, category, condition, general location, and seller profile information. Communications about marketplace listings may occur through direct messages.

All marketplace transactions, communications, meetings, transfers, and legal compliance are solely between users. Fieldstream does not process payments, verify buyers or sellers, escrow funds, ship items, or guarantee marketplace transactions.

12. Firearms and Regulated Items

If firearm-related or regulated item content is permitted in the Service, users are solely responsible for complying with all applicable federal, state, and local laws. Fieldstream does not verify user eligibility, licenses, legal status, background check requirements, or the legality of any transaction.

We may review, remove, restrict, or report content involving firearms, ammunition, weapons, or regulated items when required by law, platform policy, safety concerns, or our Terms.

13. AI Assistant Data

When you use the Allout AI assistant, prompts, questions, uploaded context, generated responses, and interaction history may be processed to provide responses, maintain conversation history, improve reliability, enforce safety policies, and prevent abuse.

Do not submit sensitive personal information, confidential information, or information you do not have the right to share through the AI assistant.

14. International Transfers

Your information may be processed and stored in the United States or other locations where Fieldstream or its service providers operate. By using the Service, you understand that your information may be transferred to and processed in locations outside your state, province, or country.

15. California and Other Privacy Rights

Depending on where you live, you may have rights to access, correct, delete, or receive a copy of certain personal information, or to object to or restrict certain processing. To make a privacy request, contact Support@alloutdoors.co.

We do not sell personal information and do not knowingly share personal information for cross-context behavioral advertising.

16. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. If we make material changes, we may notify you through the Service or by other reasonable means. Your continued use of the Service after changes become effective means you accept the updated Privacy Policy.
